ROSSFELD SCENIC ROAD

The Rossfeld scenic road is passable all year round and offers an unforgettable driving experience!

Germany's highest scenic road leads the visitor right into the unique high alpine mountain world of the Berchtesgadener Land. It can easily be reached by car, by motorcycle, by bus or public bus from Berchtesgaden via the Obersalzberg or from Unterau via Oberau.

There are large parking lots at the summit section, where a gorgeous panoramic view over the huge mountain massif of Hoher Göll, Kehlstein, Tennen- and Dachsteingebirge, Untersberg as well as over the Berchtesgadener and Salzburger Land awaits the visitor.

The Rossfeld scenic road is an ideal starting point for a great variety of hikes for different physical demands. Two nicely located mountain inns and a kiosk invite visitors to stop and rest, while enjoying the view and some refreshments. As a skiing resort for families, the Rossfeld offers the most reliable snow conditions in all of the Berchtesgadener Land during the winter season. It comprises various ski-lifts including an approx. 6 km long slope to Oberau.

The Rossfeld scenic road rewards its visitors with unforgettable impressions when looking to

- the east: Salzachtal with Salzburg, Salzburger Alpen, Dachstein and Totes Gebirge
- the south-east: Tennen- and Hagengebirge
- the south: Hoher Göll (8274 ft) and Kehlstein (6027 ft) with Kehlsteinhaus.
- the south west and the west: Berchtesgadener Alpen with Watzmann (8901 ft), Hochkalter (8553 ft) and Reiteralpe as well as Berchtesgaden
- the north-west and north: Lattengebirge and Untersberg (6473 ft)
